IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THIS FORM

If you find this form is not suited to the type of designation you prefer please advise the MTA Defined Benefit Pension Office. In the mean time, for your protection and the protection of your beneficiary(ies), you should make an interim designation using this form.

Attachments to your beneficiary form are unacceptable.

New beneficiary forms filed will supersede any previous designation. Therefore, if you want to add or delete a beneficiary, for example a new child, you must include on the new form all beneficiaries you wish to designate.

This form is for designating beneficiaries who will receive ordinary death benefits, if ordinary death benefits become payable on account of your death. You may not designate beneficiaries to receive accidental death benefits. The beneficiaries who are entitled to receive accidental death benefits are mandated by the MTA Defined Benefit Retirement Program.

The same person or persons cannot be designated as both primary and contingent beneficiaries. We can make payment to a contingent beneficiary(ies) only if all primary beneficiary(ies) die before you do.

If you wish to have these benefits distributed through your estate, you should name "my estate" as beneficiary. Your estate can be named as either primary or contingent beneficiary. However, if you name your estate as a primary beneficiary, you may not name any contingent beneficiary.

Make sure that you:

- * Complete all required information
- * Sign and date the form
- * Have the form notarized, making sure the notary has entered his or her license expiration date

If a named beneficiary is a minor at the time of your death his or her benefit will be paid to a duly-appointed guardian.

Do not alter this form or make stipulations. The use of correction fluid or other alterations on the beneficiary form will render the designation invalid.

You cannot provide for payment to a trust if you have executed a trust agreement or have provided for a trust in your will. Your designation should include the name and address of the trustee and the date of the trust agreement or will was executed.

IMPORTANT: Please note that in this type of designation, the trust itself is the beneficiary, NOT the person or persons for whose benefit it was established. If the trust expires or is revoked, its designation as beneficiary is no longer effective.

If more than one beneficiary is named they will share equally unless you indicate percentages for each beneficiary. The total must equal 100%. You may not designate dollar amounts

Unborn children may not be designated as beneficiaries.
